NAVIGATING EARLY | Kirkus Reviews

NAVIGATING EARLY intertwines the past and present to create a meaningful and compelling story of two boys dealing with loss and loneliness. As in her Newbery Award-winning Moon Over Manifest, author Clare Vanderpool expertly deals with complex emotions, wrapping them in metaphor and refracting them throughout the cast of characters, so that each is fully realized and even the bad guys reveal their pain.

Navigating Early - Book Review - commonsensemedia.org

Navigating Early is a complex story, to be sure, and it's all the more satisfying for its poetic language and intimation that not everything has a logical explanation. Vanderpool herself is quite comfortable with the latter notion.
