The Mephisto Covenant Series by Trinity Faegen

The covenant of redemption is intimately concerned with God's eternal plan. It is called a "covenant" inasmuch as the plan involves two or more parties. This is not a covenant between God and humans. It is a covenant among the persons of the Godhead, specifically between the Father and the Son.

What Is the Covenant of Redemption? - Ligonier Ministries

This Covenant of Redemption refers to the covenant within the Trinity which established the plan of salvation, i.e. the agreement within the Godhead that the Father would appoint the Son to give up his life for mankind and that Jesus would do so (cf. Titus 1:1-3).
